MORE CONVENTION

Photo #1 - The Big Red Apple - Mr. Arthur Leach entertained us with his "Johnnie Appleseed" skit. There seemed to be worms in the apple. Pretty fresh worms too. They liked to kiss the ladies.

Photo #2 - Mr. Eric Golby and wife Sally of the Norman Reasoner Chapter and 2nd Vice President of the Society. Mr. Golby was Convention Chairman and went on tranquilizers during the pre-convention days. A good job you did, Eric.

Photo #4 - Mr. D. U. "Dave" Donaldson and wife Edna. Mr. Donaldson was re-elected watch-dog of the Treasury. He has been called the "Old Grey Fox" in his job of International Treasurer.

Photo #5 - Keta Allgood and Dr. Cos Leefmans took the prize for the most unlikely shipwreck costume. Keta is a member of the Ridge Chapter and Dr. Leefmans is a member of the Halifax Chapter.

Photo #6 - Hibiscus made of glass beads by Mrs. W. J. Baum. Sophia designed and made this arrangement for the Sunrise Chapter. Chances were sold and the arrangement was given away at the annual meeting. It was won by Mrs. Walter Cahill of Boca Raton. Sophia donated her labor and material to the benefit of the Sunrise Chapter to help with financing their show. There are thousands of red, green and yellow beads in this arrangement. We don't know how many months it took to string all of them on wire and shape them into hibiscus and leaves.
